

BIOL1340: Pathophysiology

Credit Hours: 3

Clock Hours: 45/0/0

This course explores the pathophysiology of diseases and disorders of the principal organ systems of the human body. Students examine etiology, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, and treatment of selected diseases in each system. Students analyze case studies related to selected diseases and write a disease report to deepen their knowledge of one disease of their choice.